FIRST APPEAL (ST) NO.19486 OF 2004

Office notes, office :
Memoranda of Coram, :
appearances, Court's : Court's or Judge's Orders
orders or directions :
& Registrar's orders. :

Mr. Suresh Bhosle for the applicants.

Mr. J.R. Khan for the respondent.

CORAM: SMT. RANJANA DESAI, J.

DATED: 24TH FEBRUARY, 2005.

P.C.:-

Pursuant to my order dated 18/2/2005, a sum of Rs.500/- has been paid by the applicants to the respondent-father.

For the reasons stated in the civil application, delay is condoned.
In view of the affidavit filed by the respondent-father, prayers (b) and (c) cannot be granted. Hence, pending the first appeal, the respondent-father is restrained from selling, transferring, alienating, encumbering and/or creating any third party rights or inducting any one into the suit property. He shall file an undertaking to this effect in this court within a period of two weeks from today.

Civil application is disposed of
in the aforestated terms.

C.C. expedited.
